ANZEG

postbag challenge 2022

General Conditions

- This exhibition is open to anyone, not just ANZEG Guild members. All pieces submitted will be accepted.
- Your piece must fit in a standard posting bag/box. Please don't go overboard with the packaging – make it simple and strong. Remember, we have to pack and unpack it more than once.
- Pieces can be framed but please make sure that your frame is robust as sometimes they can end up damaged in the post. ANZEG takes no responsibility for any damage sustained in transit.
- No glass or perspex please. (Broken glass can cut whoever opens the parcel, it's too dangerous).
- Pieces need to be able to be hung as there are no stands etc for 3D pieces.
- Work must be original and created within the previous 2 years. Sources/inspirations must be acknowledged as necessary to comply with copyright regulations.
- All insurance is to be covered by the entrant.
- A self-addressed postbag with appropriate return postage must be included with each entry. Please remember the extra Rural Delivery cost on your return bag if needed.
- Late entries will not be accepted.
- The judges decision is final and no discussion will be entered into.

Exhibition

The aim is always to present this as a in-situ exhibition, usually at the Craft & Quilt Fair in Hamilton, but potentially elsewhere too.
Whether or not an exhibition space is secured, this will proceed as a Virtual Exhibition on ANZEG's website, embroiderynz.co.nz.
All pieces are sent to ANZEG's photographer, who prepares it for publication in ANZEG's Threads magazine, and on the website.
Pieces will be returned as soon as possible after the last exhibition.

Prizes

This year there are two prize pools:
ANZEG: Winner $500; $150 Print Ready merit prize; $50 viewers' choice.
Sewing Supplies: 1st $300, 2nd $150, 3rd $100.

Every entry is eligible for the ANZEG prize(s).
For the ANZEG prizes, pieces are scored using a points system, by two experienced embroidery judges. Pieces are scored on: •Total impact •Design •Colour •Workmanship •Suitability of materials •Presentation. The scores are then added together so judges can compare their highest scoring pieces, which helps them to select a winner.

To be eligible for the SEWING SUPPLIES LTD prize(s), the piece entered must be stitched incorporating Madeira threads. Proof of purchase of Maderia threads, $20 and over, from any outlet is essential. If dealing directly with Sewing Supplies, mention that the purchase is for the Challenge is required. Please attach a copy of the receipt to your Form B (when sending your piece).
The Sewing Supplies prizes will be selected by a member of their staff.
Note: One embroidery is eligible to win more than one prize as they are judged by two separate panels.

Important Dates
