Dear Guild Members

Regional News

Exhibitions

What a thrill to see the "Petals and Threads" Exhibition at the opening last Thursday! Congratulations to Wellington Guild members who've done such a great job of interpreting Kate McAlpine's photos.

I've seen a video of the "Colour Challenge Blue" pieces and it will certainly be worth going to see.

I know of others who were impressed with Jo Dixey's "Glimmers of Gold" exhibition.

I'm looking forward to visiting all three exhibitions with a friend this weekend and I hope you go and see them all – details listed later in this memo.

Next Taranua Region Stitching Day 4 October

This will be hosted by Kapiti Embroiderers' Guild on 4 October, 10am – 3pm at Coast Community Church, 57 Hinemoa St, Paraparaumu. Always an enjoyable day of stitching, socialising and purchasing.

ANZEG News

Shortly after I sent out last month's memo, Tracey Boyd, Hawkes Bay & Gisborne Regional Representative sent a link to a video posted by Sarah Homfrey for World Embroidery Day. Wairoa Guild is very proud of their newest member Lee, who sent in a video of her beautifully stitched mythical tuatara to World Embroidery Day. Lee is very early on in the video at 5 minutes 31 seconds.

The ANZEG Extensions National Exhibition "Landscapes of Desire" is being held in Oamaru at the Forrester Gallery, 9 Thames St, from Saturday, 04 October 2025 to Sunday, 16 November 2025, so if you're down that way, go and see it. <https://www.culturewaitaki.org.nz/Forrester-Gallery/Landscapes-of-Desire>

Educational opportunities and Exhibitions

Exhibitions

2 August - 27 October. "My Last ABC". Whirinaki Whare Taonga, Upper Hutt tells Jeanette Verster's love of visual storytelling through layered works of fabric, stitch, handmade paper, and collage. Inspired by children's alphabet books, this series playfully reimagines the concept as an ABC for the unyoung. It's a bit quirky and cleverly done.

1 - 30 September, Jo Dixey's exhibition "Glimmers of Gold", 79 tiny humans. Old St Paul's, 34 Mulgrave St, Wellington, 10 – 4 daily. Entry by donation.

19 - 28 September Wellington Guild in conjunction with Kate McAlpine - "Petals and Threads", at Te Auaha, 65 Dixon St, Wellington. 8.30- 6.00pm during the week and 10.00-3.00 at the weekends.

Hands-on workshop at Te Auaha during the exhibition:

Plant art workshop 1pm on 27 September. All materials provided but feel free to bring plant material from your garden!

For more information & to register for workshops go to: <https://weg.org.nz/whats-happening/#events>

22 September – 12 October, 10am – 2pm, ANZEG Colour Challenge Blue – Inverlochy Art School, 3 Inverlochy Place, Te Aro, Wellington. There is flat access to Inverlochy Art School if you drive your car up the drive at the side of the house, park and then walk on the decking around to the back. You can leave the car up there while viewing the exhibition. There is a sign that say ' Wheelchair access' at the bottom of the drive but it is small and may be missed.
