August 2025

Kia ora stitchers,

Well, this last month has been all about the exhibition and I hope you get the opportunity to visit and cast your viewer's choice. I would like to make a special mention Shirley Pygott, Kim Wood, Sue Barns, Sue Reid and Robyn Vallom for their help either before, after and or during this event, it takes many hands to make it all come together. To our Judges, Anna Deacan and Trish Hughes who spent hours going through all the pieces. Plus, all the staff at Estuary Arts who do such a great job to make it look fabulous. We had around 114 pieces and the work on display was being ooh'd and aah'd before we had finished setting up. Well done to all who put a piece in, we cannot have these exhibitions unless we have you to enter your pieces in.

The Embroiderers' Great Escape - 27 -29 March 2026

Hi Everyone,

I was privileged to help with the hanging of our current Regional Exhibition, as we unwrapped each piece of work, we were once again amazed at the skills of all of us! We can all pat ourselves on the back, it is a wonderful exhibition. Please make time to go up to Estuary Arts, enjoy looking and be inspired!

It always brings me joy to see many completed projects from the Great Escape classes, this shows our Great Escape Committee that we chose classes you wanted to do and when the project is completed, we know you enjoyed the class.

Registrations for Great Escape 2026 are still arriving in our inbox, some classes are proving to be very popular. The last opportunity to see the samples for next years classes will be at Regional Day on 11 th October hosted by East Auckland Guild, after that the samples will be returned to the tutors. We will also hold our Great Escape Annual Meeting at this event.

Your committee are working hard on rewriting our constitution to comply with the Incorporated Society's new rules. We are also looking at classes we will offer to you for Great Escape 2027. If you see an embroidery style created by an Australian or New Zealand tutor that you would enjoy, please let the committee know and we will try and include that tutor in our lineup. We are always on the lookout for new tutors for our event.

I am looking forward to catching up with many of you at Regional Day

Cheers Kim
