ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This intriguing and ancient fine art has been developed by cultures spanning more than 3000 years. It is a beautiful and versatile medium for designing both decorative and functional items. The workshop is for those curious to learn about silk as an artistic medium. You will learn a range of techniques to create some vibrant colourful effects and go home with an eclectic collection of silk scarves. All levels are welcome, and no artistic talent is required. The magic of working with silk is that it always looks amazing. Enjoy, relax, and 'go with the flow' with these special silk dyes.

ABOUT THE TUTOR

Cecilie has been experimenting with and learning the fine art of silk dyeing for over 20 years. The quixotic dyes continually intrigue her and she enjoys working with both established and new techniques. A passionate and creative tutor, Cecilie can't wait to share all the striking possibilities silk painting can offer your embroidery projects.
